L’Heure d’Amour (The Hour of Love)

Presented by LePetit Mariage

What to expect

At LePetit Mariage, we specialize in creating intimate, meaningful elopements and microweddings that center your love story. With years of experience crafting ceremonies in all kinds of settings, we bring both professionalism and heart to every celebration.

Your ceremony will take place in our intimate wedding studio at stARTup Studios in downtown Macon. Housed in a beautifully restored warehouse space, stARTup Studios blends Macon’s industrial history with modern creativity. Exposed brick, high ceilings, and warm lighting create a setting that feels both artistic and romantic—an unexpected and memorable backdrop for a small, heartfelt wedding.

Our approach is simple: weddings are for everyone. We joyfully serve couples of all identities, orientations, faiths, cultures, and family structures. Your ceremony can be traditional, secular, spiritual, or entirely your own—we’ll help shape something that feels authentic to you.

Your one-hour elopement experience includes personalized ceremony planning, an experienced officiant from our diverse collective, and thoughtful coordination to ensure everything flows beautifully. We also partner with a trusted network of local photographers, florists, and creative vendors should you wish to add special touches.

From the moment you arrive to the moment you say “I do,” our goal is to create a warm, seamless experience so you can focus on what matters most: celebrating your commitment and beginning this next chapter together.

VENUE

stARTup Studios in the LePetit Wedding Studio - Housed in a beautifully restored historic warehouse where Macon's trolleys were once kept, stARTup Studios blends history, art, and intimacy with ease. The front of the space welcomes guests as a working art studio, while the newly renovated event space in back reveals soaring ceilings and thoughtfully preserved architectural details that honor the building's past. Warm, creative, and full of character, it's a naturally meaningful setting for a micro wedding—where the story of the space adds depth to the story you're beginning together.

stARTup Studio Artist-Crafted Couples Experience

Couples have the option to connect with artists who reside in the building and add a creative element to their celebration. Glass artist Bryan Beck hosts hands-on classes where couples can make something together—like crafting their own champagne flutes to toast with on their wedding day or creating glass pieces that can become a keepsake afterward. Ceramic artist Yen-Ting Chiu works in clay and guide couples in simple projects such as shaping small ceramic hearts or tokens to share with guests, or making a small dish or vessel to keep from the day.These kinds of experiences can happen before or after your ceremony and offer a relaxed way to create something meaningful together. If you have an idea of your own, you're always welcome to bring it to the artists and see what might be possible. We're happy to help make the introduction so you can explore options directly with them.
